Mr. Folks Huxford

Homerville, Georgia

Dear Sir:

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, R. 7683, that Lewis Sanders Nobles applied for pension November 14, 1854, while a resident of Clinch County, Georgia, aged ninety-four years.

He alleged that while living in Edgefield District, South Carolina, he served a few months under Captain Elijah Clarke in South Carolina, and after that served five years under a man named Roebuck (rank not given), and was in the battles of Brandywine, Camden, Kings Mountain, Cowpens, and at the siege of Yorktown.

His claim was not allowed as he failed to furnish proof of the alleged service, which was the requirement of the pension law.

Reference was made to children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. but no names were given.

Very truly yours

E. W. MORGAN
Acting Commissioner

S.C. Nobles, Sanders R.7683
